vention, but having been a close observer he is able to be of considerable service in the committees of which he is a member. Mr. Burns, who is 61 years of age, is a native of Ohio and the son of a soldier in the American army during the war of 1812. The subject of this sketch received a common school education in his native state, and had for schoolmates Ge D. S. Stanley, one of the bravest soldiers in the Union army in the civil war, and Senator William B. Allison, of Iowa. Mr. Burns' early manhood was passed in farming and merchandising. In 1860 he removed to California, where he engaged in mining, which occupation he has followed up to the present time. In 1878 he removed to Nevada and in 1881 came to Montana, taking charge of the Belmont mine near Marysville, in which position he has been nearly ever since.

Helena, Oct. 7, 1887.

I was suffering from an unusually bad cough, my lungs were sore and congested, and I consulted one of the best physicians in Helena, whose prescriptions failed to relieve me. I became alarmed, and at the suggestion of a friend purchased a bottle of Acker's English Remedy for coughs, and after taking it according to directions was completely cured. I therefore cheerfully recommend it.

JACOB SWITZER.

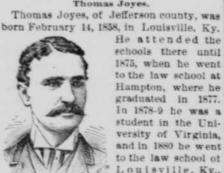

I had a racking cough and inflamed throat and bought a bottle of Acker's English Remedy upon the recommendation of a friend, and was entirely cured by it. I consider it a never falling remedy for a cough.

Acker's _nglish preparations are for sale in Helena only by R. S. Hale & Co.

A WESTERN TURFMAN.

Free-Hand Sketch of J. B. Haggin, the Owner of Ben Ali. New York World: One of the mor singular of all the big betters is daggin the California millionaire. Half Turk, half Kentuckian, taciturn, vindictive, despotic ne has no companions and no friends. A dozen stories are told of his early life; how ne was taken captive in the Mediterranear sea; how he was raised by an old Turk, who adopted him; how the old Turk made Mussulman of him and left him millions. and how finally, when his son was born he named him "Ben Ali," in honor of his ben factor. No one knows how much of this is

Both of them are at times heavy bettors, and when they like a horse will not hesitate to put up $5,000 or $10,000 on him. They are not betting so heavily this year as they did in the past.

Mr. Haggin is a man of the most violent passions. When his horse, named after his son, Ben Ali, won the Kentucky derby, there were no books on the Louisville track winner, Haggin, with many an imprecation, had nim taken straight to the stable, and interesting. Mr. Stapleton is married and has one daughter. In the constitutional convention he represents the twenty-second district. He resides at Butle City, where he has a large legal practice, his business partner being J. C. Robinson, of Deer Lodge.
